MOOD: prepared

is getting my own home-grown version of an IFAK ([https://www.livejournal.com/away?
to=http%3A/www.marinecorpstimes.com/news/2010/06/marine\_ifak\_061310w/](https://www.livejournal.com/away?to=http%3A/www.marinecorpstimes.com/news/2010/06/marine_ifak_061310w/)) as an early Valentine's day present. And a brief training class on how to use it.

Because every single person in the Tucson shooting who did not die more or less instantly is still alive ([https://www.livejournal.com/away?
to=http%3A/www.npr.org/2011/01/28/133307999/in-tuscons-silent-chaos-rare-medic-kits-were-key](https://www.livejournal.com/away?to=http%3A/www.npr.org/2011/01/28/133307999/in-tuscons-silent-chaos-rare-medic-kits-were-key)). And the fact that a smart member of local law enforcement saw to it that his fellow officers were so equipped is probably a very big part of that.

Equip your loved ones. You never know when you may witness a major penetrating injury.

Thank you

This is Patricia Andreoli, wife of Daphne Worth, who you all knew as Trollcatz. Daphne died

...And there goes the weekend

But hey, we got a day and a half of this one! And I got to sleep in for two whole mornings. Too bad enforcement professional--

Unless one is a member of the United States Armed Forces, one compiles one's own. I would also recommend getting the appropriate training to go with it.

Which reminds me, it's about time to rotate out the kits in the cars.
